Hey Everyone! The form below is required in the case of tattooing a minor. We recommend the minor and guardian come in beforehand for a consultation. During a consultation, we would discuss the process, design, placement, price and set up an appointment if necessary. We've made a checklist in hopes of making things easier. Please be sure you have each item listed during the time of your tattoo or we cannot perform any services.

- Notarized Consent Form – Please print the following form and have it notarized. You may have it notarized anywhere that is convenient for you, bank, Amscot, someone you may know, etc.

- Identification for Guardian – We would need a valid, State Issued ID from the guardian.

- Identification for Minor – We would need a valid, State Issued ID from the minor as well. Reminder: Minors must be 16 or older in order to receive services.

- Proof of Guardianship – We would need proof the adult is the legal guardian of the Minor. A birth certificate would serve as proof for biological parents. Court ordered guardianship papers would serve for Legal Guardians.

Guardians must be present during the entire process of the tattoo. Unfortunately, we do not have the power to make any exceptions. We support Florida Law keeping Orlando’s safety as our priority.

As always, feel free to contact us with any questions! We’ll see you soon.
